

VTS-DI FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the benefits of being a member of AVTDI

Can I use “in-house” CE to complete the CE requirements.

Can I use on-line CE?

Yes.

Is there a limit to the amount of on-line CE I can use?

No more than ten (10) hours of the forty (40) CE hours required, may come from electronic and/or printed sources. (Refer to Article VII, Section 1 of the AVTDI Bylaws)

How can I get a mentor to help me with questions during the application process?

Who can sign off on my skills list?

- A Doctor of Veterinary Medicine who is a Diplomate of the ACVR (American College of Veterinary Radiology) and/or a Diplomate of the ECVDI (European College of Veterinary Diagnostic Imaging).
- A senior third year ACVR/ ECVDI Resident.
- A Doctor of Veterinary Medicine who is a Boarded Specialist in Internal Medicine, Neurology, Surgery, Oncology or Emergency and Critical Care that perform advanced imaging modalities.
- An AVTDI member.

- A credentialed VTS technician/nurse of Internal Medicine, Neurology, Surgery, Oncology or Emergency and Critical Care that perform diagnostic imaging studies and/or advanced imaging modalities.

How does AVTDI define “mastery” of a skill?

Candidates have mastered a skill if they can perform the task safely and consistently, without being coached or directed, no less than three (3) times. Mastery requires having performed the task in a wide variety of patients and situations (Advanced Skills List in AVTDI Bylaws).

Will I be penalized for using spelling or grammar used in the UK?

We recognize there are differences between spelling and grammar in the UK, Australia and New Zealand and spelling and grammar in the United States. No deductions will be taken for British English spellings, consistency will be key and switching back between styles may result in a request for editing and resubmission.
